

I think there are several more serious issues to spend time on than XM Radio. I pay for my XM Radio and think I should have the right to do so without intrusion. I travel and am always able to have access to traffic and weather even in areas where the normal radio reception is not availableThank you